Customer Reviews

Avventure Bellissime are proud to boast a high level of excellent reviews on TripAdvisor and on our website. Below are just a few of these.

' Perfect in Every Way '

We spent two weeks touring Rome, Sorrento, Florence and Tuscany. This was the trip of a lifetime for me and my husband. I wanted to do the bulk of the planning myself (I enjoy that part) but also have the expert guidance and opinions of a travel company. We picked pieces from their extended and day trips. We set the itinerary. We booked the flights from New York. Avventure Bellissime gave us a list of hotels in each location and we picked the one we wanted. They arranged private car transfers, train tickets and local tours.

Their planning was flawless. We saw everything we wanted to see. Their tours truly are skip-the-line. Our drivers were waiting for us exactly where we expected them to be on time, at every juncture. Our guides were also exactly where we expected them to be every time.

Those are the dry details. The important thing however, are the people. Aleksandra and Claudia in the office in Venice answered all questions and helped with the details. The guides felt like family. My husband has some mobility difficulties. Every guide treated him kindly and worked to get him where he wanted to be as slowly as he needed to go. Francesca led us through the Roman antiquities and then the Vatican. She was like a daughter to us. She found my husband chairs to rest in and stopped people-traffic to allow him passage. We we enchanted with her. Carmine led us in the pouring rain through Pompeii and again, made sure my husband had all the help he needed. In Florence we were lucky to spend two tours with Katerina. She gave us an amazing tour of the Uffizi Museum and another day, the stature of David and a walking tour. She has a vast knowledge of art history and Florence. It was a pleasure to spend time with her. Finally, we took a day-long tour through Tuscany with Eduardo. He was a delight! We went from place to place, he arranged lunch for us in a delightful restaurant, and ended up in amazing Siena.

I know this is a long review but I want to make absolutely sure that we share our experience with Avventure Bellissime. There was not one single mis-step and we will call them first when we return to Italy.
