DAY 01: WELCOME TO LUXOR, DISCOVER KARNAK AND LUXOR TEMPLES

Welcome to Luxor home of King Tutankhamoun, upon your arrival at Luxor International Airport you will be met by our courteous and professional airport representatives who will arrange your transfer to the 5 star deluxe M/S Al Jamila Nile Cruise - or Similar-. Enjoy a sumptuous lunch on board and tour the breath taking Karnak Temple, the largest temple complex built by man covering approximately 200 acres with individual temples built for various gods. It is a massive complex of columns, statues, halls and courts which tell a story of its former grandeur and splendor and later visit the Luxor temple for a brilliant night tour with horse carriage.

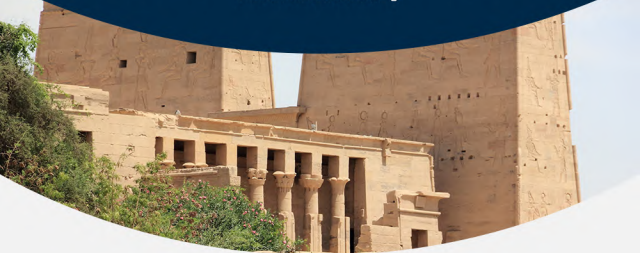

DAY 02: VALLEY OF KINGS, HATSHEPSUT TEMPLE, AND COLOSSI OF MEMNON

Disembark the Nile Cruise to visit the Valley of the Kings which is a massive burial ground for Pharaohs, kings and the elite. Visit Hatshepsut Temple and learn about the first female Pharaoh. Then visit the Colossi of Memnon two huge statues around 17m high that guarded the mortuary temple of Amenhotep III. Enjoy lunch on board the Nile cruise and spend the night on board the Nile Cruise.

DAY 03: EDFU TEMPLE AND KOM-OMBO TEMPLE

Visit the Temple of Edfu said to be the best preserved temple in Egypt and only second to Karnak in its grandeur. Enjoy lunch on board the Nile cruise then tour the Temple of Kom Ombo which is actually two temples built in one. With one side dedicated to the crocodile god and the other to falcon head god. Then go sailing around Kitchener Island with Felucca. Board the Nile Cruise for dinner and spend the remainder of the evening.

DAY 04: PHILAE TEMPLE, HIGH DAM AND UNFINISHED OBELISK

After having breakfast on the Nile cruise before disembarking for your last tour of Aswan, tour the Philae Temple dedicated to the goddess Isis with its many shrines and sanctuaries. Then visit the amazing High Dam for a panoramic view from atop the 364ft tall structure and finally stop by the Unfinished Obelisk.
