SALADIN CITADEL

Our next stop of the day will be to the Citadel. Constructed in 1176 by the most famous Egyptian king, Saladin El Ayouby, the citadel today has become a popular touristic attraction and a landmark of Cairo. It hosts many interesting structures like the Mosque of Mohamed Ali, the military museum, and moreover, the structure of the citadel itself is quite remarkable.

SULTAN HASSAN MOSQUE

The mosque features a huge and beautifully-ornamented dome situated over the tomb of the establisher of the complex, Sultan Hassan.

RIFAI MOSQUE

Our next visit will be to the Rifai Mosque. Established by Khoshiar Hanem, the Mother of Khedive Ismail, this mosque was opened to the public in the beginning of the 20th century as the tombs of the royal family of Mohamed Ali in Egypt. With its huge size and marvelous architecture and decorations, it is never less charming than its neighbor, the Sultan Hassan Mosque.
